Supported by CAOLA to offer your child a better cyber option

Do you know the benefits of being enrolled in CAOLA?

- Your child will earn a Steelton-Highspire School District Diploma.
- Your child will have an opportunity to take both online and face to face courses.
- Your child can participate in all activities without paying an activity fee.
- Students enrolled in CAOLA, outperform their peers who attend surrounding cyber schools.
- School taxes are not increased as compared to when children are enrolled in cyber schools that aren't partnered with our school district.
